NEW YORK, Oct. 2.- The Stock Market was somewhat unsettled in the early dea

Declines were common upon the openin of business, Union Pacific receding wit particular rapidity. After the opening however, the market developed a muc steadier tone, and in the recovery Unio Pacific, common, was conspicuous.

Sentiment is still hopeful in the Sto Market. Beginning at the close of lass week, after the bank statement some of the important people have been buying securities. curities, apparently for a pre-election boom. So at least the Street generally be lieves, and there are very good reasons for the belief. What these big speculators will delater is another matter. They talk no of a permanent advance on account of the good things in the situation, but it is not impossible that if they succeed in foreign good things in the situation, but it is not impossible that if they succeed in forcing prices up several points this month they may be willing to sell out and take their profits, say, in the week before election. There are many that say this is the programme, as at present outlined. They do not look for the present advance to be a permanent one. Even many people bull-ishly inclined on the general market situation expect to be able to buy securities again during the next few weeks at prices not much, if any, higner than the present level.

way securities generally held their well, though the good advances made yesterday induced some realizing. Sugar was , to a certain extent, an exception to the general strength, with a quick decline of a point or more. Tennessee Coal and Iron went off to 63 and a fraction at the opening.

Money rates were not advanced this morning, and the quick spurt in call leans expected so generally does not materialize. Exchange rates show that the importation of gold from the other side is not in the least unlikely in the near future. Financial people say that any sharp advance in rates on this side would almost inevitably result in im-portations to adjust the balance, as Lon-done owes New York an immense amount of gold.

Big Four advanced to sixty-three and Big Four advanced to sixty-three and a fraction during the first hour. The strength of this stock during all the recent break and its present sharp advance have been matters of much interest in the Street. The advance may extend somewhat further at the present time, but buying on the bulge is not advised, unless on ample margins for investment. The New York_Central-Big Four deal undoubtedly will be carried through, but this ubtedly will be carried through, but this stock has a way of making a sharp on good news and then dropping and client. back three or four points.

The buying of Union Pacific, common continued this morning, but there was some selling of the stock, too, so that the advance in price did not begin again—at least, during the first hour. The character of this buying, for the Gates clique and for Mr. Keene, among others seems to indicate that the advanciers to indicate that the advance is at least good for a few points further. The stock is one of the best also for investment. It is one of the best also for investment. It has held its own with great persistence at near the best price on record and will sell much higher during the coming mouth, beyond any reasonable doubt.

The grangers halted for a time in theli upward movement this morning and it was thought possible that there might be a small decline before the end of the day. The group has many friends, however, and there will be good buying on any small tumble in price which makes it seem extremely likely that they will reach a highor level shortly.

It is said that the earnings of the Brook lyn Rapid Transit for the quarter ending September 30, will be shown to be the best on record by many thousands of dollars. One statement is that the increase over th same quarter last year will be about 1 per cent on the stock of the company. It is this kind of statement, and three or four of them only, that are needed to make the old friends of Brooklyn quite as enthusiastic as they ever were. The stock was supported this morning by the people the people that

The Washington Stock Exchange today The trading this morning was not particularly important, but it showed much the same tendencies made clear yesterthe same tendencies made clear yester-day. Big Four, common, was strong and buoyant on the expectation of an early pettlement of the deal between this company and the New York Central. The railway securities generally held their railway securities generally held their ing in these securities with certain restrictions.

It is provided that any member of the board wishing to deal in any "unlisted" security may have the privilege of calling this stock up after the "regular call" of the listed securities. If any shall be recorded on the books of the Exchange and printed in the daily bulletin for the public. No quotations are to be recorded where no sales are made. Among the securities that probably will e put on this new list are Washingt Traction and Electric 4½ per cent bonds, Union Trust and Storage Company stock, Home Savings bank stock, and Standard Butterine stock. A number of other bonds and stocks are under consideration In other cities the business in "unlisted" securities is always a large part of the total business of the exchanges. Another reason why it has been thought proper to make the change here is that under the old rule, although a stock might be quite actively dealt in in the Street, there could be no way of having an official price. This often led to numerous transactions on the same day at widely different prices and thus to friction sometimes between broker

Law Library Open at Night. It will be gratifying to the lawyers of the District to learn that the Librarian of Congress has decided to open the Law Library, commonly known as the Supreme Court Library, from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m., thus giving six hours additional for usthus giving six nours additional for using that collection. The Law Library was retained at the Capitol and its presence there offered some difficulties in the way of lighting and policing that particular nortion of the building. These bear ular portion of the building. These, how-eyer, were overcome and last night saw the beginning of the new system of night ning. The change, it is very certain will be acceptable, not alone to local law yers, but to the large number of counsel who are brought to Washington by busi-ness before the Supreme Court.

James Simpson Arrested.

James Simpson, colored, eighteen years old, the alleged assailant of Arthur Carroll, also colored, near Waterloo Station, Alexandria county, Va., Sunday night, was arrested at an early hour this morning by Policeman Kilmartin, of the First precinct. The Virginia authorities were then notified and later Constable Lipscomb arrived and took charge of the prisoner. It is alleged that Simpson struck Carroll on the head with a brick during a quarrel. Carroll sustained an ugly wound of the head, which was dressed at the Emergency Hospital. He is now at his home across the river and his condition is said to be serious.

The District Supreme Court Rules Against John H. Adrinans.

John H. Adriaans was today disbarred from practice in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. The opinion of the court in the matter was delivered by Chief Justice Alvey and concludes as fol-

"Upon full consideration of the facts in this case we are of opinion that the respondent, John H. Adriaans, should be disbarred as an attorney of this court, and therefore we do hereby order that the said John H. Adriaans be and is hereby disbar-red from further membership of the bar red from terther membership of the par of attorneys and counselors of this court, and that his name be stricken from the roll of attorneys and counselors thereof." The court also informed Mr. Adriaans that if he felt aggrieved by the judg-ment he can have recourse to the Su-preme Court of the United States. The proceeding was instituted in the preme Court of the United States.

The proceeding was instituted in the Court of Appeals, by way of information, by Henry E. Davis, at the time he was United States Attorney for the District, against Mr. Adriaans, asking that he be disbarred for alleged misconduct. In connection with the trial of a case in the Police Court about eighteen months ago, Mr. Davis alieged that Mr. Adriaans attempted to have spread upon the minattempted to have spread upon the minutes of that court certain libelous and scandalous matter regarding the former. Besides contending that Mr. Davis had no right to the office of United States Attorney for the District, he charged that he had sold the powers of his office to Adribans, or proposed in a certain suit for each state.

After the proceedings for disbarment had been begun, Mr. Adriaans, in his answer, stated that he had reason at the time he made the charges against Mr. Davis to believe that they were true. He had since learned, he said, that they were not founded in fact, and stated that he had no intention to injure Mr. Davis in any way.

SOFT COAL SHORTAGE.

in Maryland.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 2 .- The deknowledging the receipt of money sent for mand for soft coal has become so great that an actual shortage is reported at shipping ports. It is said that there is much speculative buying. All property of England is the birthplace of the prize-graces, and lord the Sabbath day, Master of the destiny of the children of men and founder-elect of the church of God, etc., etc., etc., To the Mayor of the City of Washington, D. C., U. S. A.:

Sirs: Know both of you that by virtue of the authority vested in me by God Almighty, evel of the me by God Almighty, evel of the me had founder-elect of the church of God's power, chief dispensed and minister of God's power, chief dispensed the public in general's information, That from now this day, henceforward, no human for mo now this day, henceforward, no human for mo now this day, henceforward, no human for mo now this day, henceforward, no human devery man, woman, and child in the said city of Washington, D. C., under any consideration whatsover, except I give him or her permission to do so.

Now, therefore, with that end in view, I do hereby command both of you to order each and covery man, woman, and child in the said city of Washington, D. C., to get out of it at once, and without delay, and also order all of them to stay as a few forms and the propertion of the English speaking Prophet and lawgiver.

September, seems to have come from lowland Eng-land, not from Ireland or Scotland. Nor do nations of kindred origin to the Saxon-English, such as the Scandinavians, seem to like to fisticuff. Neither can the cusom to fight with the fists be ascribed to the superior physical strength of the English, for, among people equally stalwart, it is often unknown.

The only apparent reason for this periods of the people of the pe uliar fact is, perhaps, that fisticuffs came a custom during the period of Nor-man sway in England, when the Saxon people were deprived of arms. This theory is supported by the fact that where it is common to carry arms fist fighting becomes obselete, as, for instance, pugli-ism had no place in the history of the American frontier—it was the revolver. The use of the fist indicates a desire to thrash or worst an enemy, rather tha kill him.

Probably Knows It Now.

(From the Buffalo Times.) Of course, the Mininistration doesn't know i though the chief looter may sit at its boar Mr. McKinley didn't know that Alger was loaded ngh the chief looter may sit at its board McKinley didn't know that Alger was loaded, lough everybody else in the country did.
